Project Demonstration Phase

The project is demonstrated by opening the deployed/demo application and showing its main workflow: viewing the dashboard, adding transactions, checking budgets and insights, setting a savings goal, and viewing recommendations. The source code repository is presented along with the demo link.