Th Project Development Phase

The web application was developed using React and supporting web technologies (HTML, CSS, and JavaScript). Core functions include recording transactions, calculating totals and remaining balance, tracking category budgets and savings goals, and showing rule-based financial recommendations. Data is saved in the browser using localStorage in this demo version.